S.B. CIVIL WRIT PETITION NO. 2359/2007
(Bhadar Ram & anr. Vs. RSRTC & anr.)
Date of Order :: 11.07.2007

HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE DINESH MAHESHWARI

Mr.R.S.Saluja for the petitioners

The petitioners have submitted in this writ petition that process of selection was initiated by the respondents under the advertisement dated 13.03.2003 and that the petitioners were also called for interview and the petitioners did their training also but thereafter no appointments were given and now the petitioners have come to know in the month of February, 2007 that out of the persons called for selection process in the year 2003, respondents have given appointment to some of them on contract basis on the post of driver and they have stated name of one person Balveer Singh allegedly belonging to their own village. The petitioners have sought relief in the nature of mandamus for directing the respondents to complete process of selection under the advertisement dated 13.03.2003 and if the said selection process is taken to have elapsed, then for directions to the respondents to initiate fresh selection process.

While seeking this kind of relief by filing the writ petition as late as on 17.04.2007, the petitioners have chosen not even to serve a notice on the employer concerned. This Court is clearly of opinion that for the reliefs claimed, such petition for writ cannot be entertained unless the petitioners serve a specific notices on the authority concerned stating their grievances. For this reason alone, this petition is not entertained and is, accordingly, rejected.
